

Dr Mallios is a Vascular Surgeon in Paris France dealing with all aspects of Vascular diseases and has a special focus in Vascular Access. He completed his training in France and the US and has been practising since 2015 at IMM Hospital in Paris France. He is the chairman of the iVAS conference and also co-chairs the VA session of CACVS conference in Paris. He has several journal and book chapter publications and was the first in Europe to perform the creation of a percutaneous AVF creation with the Ellipsys Vascular Access System.