

After completing his training program in General Surgery Matthias K. Widmer started his fellow-ship in Vascular Surgery at the University Hospital in Bern in 1997. 2001 he passed the European Board in Vascular Surgery and finished his Master in Medical Education in 2005. M. K. Widmer's special interests are open aortic surgery, vascular access (VA) and simulation training in surgery. He runs 2-day workshops in Vascular Access for Vascular International School. M. K. Widmer was president of the Vascular Access Society from 2015 to 2017.